

A woven success

Driffield Show Ground

Saturday/Sunday, April 18/19, 2009

Mass start 8.00 am

Entry fee: £15 (entry on the day £18)

Creating an original work of art for a new challenge walk made the new Woldsman 50 in 2008 rather special to start with; then the spectacular route, country fare and warm welcome at the village checkpoints won walkers' (and runners') hearts. With artist Ian Mitchell's Woldsman scene to inspire them the badgemakers used new techniques of differing weaves to capture the subtlety of his colours and add the final touch of success.

So a repeat this year was inevitable. We again have the use of the Driffield Show Ground, site of the country's biggest one day agricultural show and symbolic of the good relations we enjoy with our farming and countryside communities and almost (there's always room for improvement!) the same picturesque route incorporating permissive off-footpath sections.

Maps Exp. 294/295/300. Camping allowed on site. Limited (and basic) sleeping accommodation. In view of the permissive accesses allowed (some on conservation award winning land) please take particular care to observe the Country Code and it's lambing time on the Wolds - so, sorry, no dogs.

Entry fee includes badge, certificate and refreshments.
